TO

THE HIGH AND MIGHTY

PRINCE,

CHARLES THE SECOND,

BY THE GRACE OF GOD,

KING of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The Commiſſioners of the United Colonies in New-England, Wiſh all Happineſs.

Moſt Dread Soveraign,

AS our former Preſentation of the New-Teſtament was Graciouſly Accepted by Your Majeſty; ſo with all Humble Thankfulneſs for that Royal Favour, and with the like hope, We are bold now to Preſent the WHOLE BIBLE, Tranſlated into the Language of the Natives of this Country, by A Painful Labourer in that Work, and now Printed and Enſhrined, by means of the Pious Beneficence of Your Majeſties Subjects in England: which alſo by Your Special Favour hath been Continued and Confirmed to the intended Uſe and Advancement of ſo Great and Good a Work, as is the Propagation of the Goſpel to theſe poor Barbarians in this (Ete-while) Unknown World

Tranſlations of Holy Scripture, The Word of the King of Kings, have ever been deemed not unworthy of the moſt Princely Dedications: Examples whereof are extant in divers Languages. But Your Majeſty is the Firſt that hath Received one in this Language, or from this American World, or from any Parts ſo Remote from Europe as theſe are, for ought that ever we heard of.

Publications alſo of theſe Sacred Writings to the Sons of Men (who here, and here onely, have the Myſteries of their Eternal Salvation revealed to them by the God of Heaven) is a Work that the Greateſt Princes have Honoured themſelves by. But to Publiſh and Communicate the ſame to a Loſt People, as remote from Knowledge and Civility, much more from Chriſtianity, as they were from all Knowing, Civil and Chriſtian Nations; a People without Law, without Letters, without Riches, or Means to procure any ſuch thing; a People that ſate as deep in Darkneſs, and in the ſhadow of Death, as (we think) any ſince the Creation: This puts a Luſtre upon it that is Superlative; and to have given Royal Patronage and Countenance to ſuch a Publication, or to the Means thereof, will ſtand among the Marks of Laſting Honour in the eyes of all that are Conſiderate, even unto After-Generations.

And though there be in this Weſtern World many Colonies of other Europæan Nations, yet we humbly conceive, no Prince hath had a Return of ſuch a Work as this; which may be ſome Token of the Succeſs of Your Majeſties Plantation of New-England, Undertaken and Setled under the Encouragement and Security of Grants from Your Royal Father and Grandfather, of Famous Memory, and Cheriſhed with late Gracious Aſpects from Your Majeſty. Though indeed, the preſent Poverty of theſe Plantations could not have Accompliſhed this Work, had not the forementioned Bounty of England lent Relief; Nor could that have Continued to ſtand us in ſtead, without the Influence of Your Royal Favour and Authority, whereby the Corporation there, for Propagating the Goſpel among theſe Natives, hath been Eſtabliſhed and Encouraged (whoſe Labour of Love, Care, and Faithfulneſs in that Truſt, muſt ever be remembred with Honour.) Yea, when private perſons, for their private Ends, have of late ſought Advantages to deprive the ſaid Corporation of Half the Poſſeſſions that had been, by Liberal Contributions, obtained for ſo Religious

Ends;

Ends; We underſtand, That by an Honourable and Righteous Deciſion in Your Majeſties Court of Chancery, their Hopes have been defeated, and the Thing Setled where it was and is. For which great Favour, and Illuſtrious Fruit of Your Majeſties Government, we cannot but return our moſt Humble Thanks in this Publick Manner: And, as the Reſult of the joynt Endeavours of Your Majeſties Subjects there and here, acting under Your Royal Influence, We Preſent You with this Work, which upon ſundry accounts is to be called Yours.

The Southern Colonies of the Spaniſh Nation have ſent home from this American Continent, much Gold and Silver, as the Fruit and End of their Diſcoveries and Tranſplantations: That, we confeſs) is a ſcarce Commodity in this Colder Climate. But (ſutable to the Ends of our Undertaking) we Preſent this, and other Concomitant Fruits of our poor Endeavours to Plant and Propagate the Goſpel here; which, upon a true account, is as much better then Gold, as the Souls of men are more worth then the whole World. This is a Nobler Fruit (and indeed in the Counſels of All-diſpoſing Providence, was an higher intended End) of Columbus his Adventure. And though by his Brother's being hindred from a ſeaſonable Application, your Famous Predeceſſour and Anceſtor, King Henry the Seventh, miſſed of being ſole Owner of that firſt Diſcovery, and of the Riches thereof; yet, if the Honour of firſt Diſcovering the True and Saving Knowledge of the Goſpel unto the poor Americans and of Erecting the Kingdome of JESUS CHRIST among them, be Reſerved for, and do Redound unto your Majeſty, and the Engliſh Nation, After-ages will not reckon this Inferiour to the other. Religion is the End and Glory of Mankinde. and as it was the Profeſſed End of this Plantation; ſo we deſire ever to keep it in our Eye as our main Deſign (both as to our ſelves, and the Natives about us) and that our Products may be anſwerable thereunto. Give us therefore leave (Dread Sovereign) yet again humbly to Beg the Continuance of your Royal Favour, and of the Influences thereof, upon this poor Plantation, The United Colonies of NEW-ENGLAND, for the Securing and Eſtabliſhment of our Civil Priviledges, and Religious Liberties hitherto Enjoyed; and, upon this Good Work of Propagating Religion to theſe Natives, that the Supports and Encouragements thereof from

England

England may be ſtill Countenanced and Confirmed. May this Nurſing ſtill ſuck the Breaſt of Kings, and be foſtered by your Majeſty, as it hath been by your Royal Predeceſſors, unto the Preſervation of its main Concernments; It ſhall thrive and proſper to the Glory of God, and the Honour of your Majeſty: Neither will it be any loſs or grief unto our Lord the King, to have the Bleſſing of the Poor to come upon Him, and that from theſe Ends of the Earth.

The God by whom Kings Reign, and Princes Decree Juſtice, Bleſs Your Majeſty, and Eſtabliſh Your Throne in Righteouſneſs, in Mercy, and in Truth, to the Glory of His Name, the Good of His People, and to Your own Comfort and Rejoycing, not in this onely, but in another World.
